

Andrea Vezzuli’s Join Nomosophy Legal & Tax

GLOBAL LEGAL CHRONICLE by More Legal

Description

The firm, founded in 2022 by lawyers Andrea Orabona, Giovanni Tucci and Giovanni de Donno, is expanding its partnership with the addition of Andrea Vezzuli, a specialist in civil e commercial law.

Admitted to the Bar in 2012, Andrea Vezzuli currently handles matters relating to civil, commercial, corporate and insolvency law, with a particular focus on litigation (including arbitration, both as counsel and as arbitrator), as well as on alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.

Andrea Vezzuli also provides advisory and out-of-court assistance in the same areas, particularly regulatory compliance, commercial contracts, and privacy.
Since 2011, he has been a member of AGAM – Associazione Giovani Avvocati Milano (the Milan section of AIGA), and since 2019 he has also been a member of AIJA (International Association of Young Lawyers).

“We are delighted to welcome Andrea,” commented Giovanni Tucci, partner at Nomosophy. “He brings expertise that will enhance and broaden the services our firm offers to clients.”

“Working in Nomosophy side by side with the others partners” added Andrea Vezzuli, “represents a real opportunity to provide clients with a structured service model, combining complementary skills and delivering additional value.”
