ITALAW and Nomosophy secure a full acquittal for the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Mayence S.r.l.

The Second Criminal Division of the Milan Court, sitting as a panel, has fully acquitted Vincent Fremont, former Chairman of the Board of Directors of Mayence S.r.l., a subsidiary of the French multinational "Mayence SA," of the charge of fraudulent bankruptcy by misrepresentation.

Mayence Srl operates in Italy as part of the French group Mayence SA, specializing in the Luxury, Cosmetics, Perfumery, Health & Wellness, Food, Mass Retail, Wines & Spirits, Services, and Home Furnishing sectors, providing services in Operational Marketing, Trade Marketing, POS Display Solutions, Commercial Furnishings, Retail, Merchandising, Store & Window Display Setups, Packaging & Printing.

Vincent Fremont was represented in the litigation by a team of ITALAW – Studio di Avvocati led by Francesco Pezone (in the photo on the left) alongside Dr. Ilenia Laus, and by Nomosophy Legal & Tax with a team coordinated by Andrea Orabona (in the photo on the right) and composed of Giulia Piva. The team was assisted in the technical aspects by Dr. Emanuele Chiarini, who was responsible for the financial statement matters.
